Help Adopted People Find Peace When History Is Missing or Painful!

According to the Evan B. Donaldson Adoption Institute, there are 1.5 adopted children in the U.S. and international adoptions have doubled in the last eleven years, reaching 19, 237. In addition, 30,000 individuals are seeking birth information from the Donor Sibling Registry. The majority of children adopted internationally receive only a certificate of abandonment.

Sherrie Eldridge, five-time best-selling Random House author of Twenty Things Adopted Kids Wish Their Adoptive Parents Knew (more than 150,000 sold), an adopted person herself, specializes in deepening a sense of connection between adoptive parents and their children. She can help your listeners:

- Help adoptive parents of internationally-adopted children, or donor-adopted children create a sense of connection for their children without feeling threatened.
- Reveal the unique DNA connection to the birth parents that creates the much-needed sense of connection.

Interview Topics:

- Is My Life a Mistake? Many adopted and foster children believe this. Eldridge will share how parents can clear this shameful thought from their children.
- My Birth Mother Was Raped. Your audience will have hope after listening to Eldridge's compelling story.
- Rejection after Adoption Reunion Is Rampant!
